Dear Mick,

I would like to invite you to a community forum which the Mining & Energy Union Queensland district are holding in Biloela Monday, 6 March 2023, commencing at 5.30pm and running till 8.30pm. Its being held at the Biloela Community Center

The forum relates to the future of energy & options in Queensland.

We will have the opportunity for further discussion and engagement with the presentation both during and after the formal event concludes.

The forum agenda will consist of presentation by the following

- Queensland energy minister Mick de Brenni Minister for Energy, Renewables and Hydrogen.
- West Australian Bill Johnson Minister for Mines and Petroleum, Energy
- s.78 s.78 WA MEU District Secretary "Lessons learnt from WA and what does the MEU Queensland need to consider as a priority."
- s.78 s.78 Qld MEU President
- s.78 s.78 General Manager – Commercial Global CCS Institute, "CCS's role in Queensland's Future energy mix"
- s.78 s.78 Managing Director| Australian National Low Emissions Coal R&D, "The role of electricity systems modelling in optimising planning decisions,"

We are hoping you can attend on the day. It's our intention for the forum to be non-political and gives all those present an opportunity to engage on the matters at hand.

Did we end up getting a departmental representative to go to Biloela?

s.49 - CTPI - Personal in so could not action

s.49 -

What are the chances of someone taking a quick flight up to Gladstan today?

Do we know if there is a CS Energy rep as well?

Have you touched down? Can I dial you in to call with Min?

Yea I havent taken off yet

Gladstone thing a CS rep is going

Everyone from the department is in Townsville

And so are all of us

About to get be on plane so can't do cal anymore boss

Report;

It was not presented as a union meeting, rather a community meeting to discuss the transformation of the energy and mining sectors, and the impact of the Queensland Energy and Jobs Plan.

- There were three main speakers.

- s.78 s.78

(CFMMEU) – spoke in support of Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS) / Carbon Capture, Utilisation and Storage (CCUS)

- s.78 s.78 (CFMMEU

Western Australian State Secretary) – spoke about Collie’s Just Transition

- Bill Jonhston (Western Australia’s Minister for Mines and Petroleum, Energy, Corrective Services and Industrial Relation) – joined by video to also discuss Collie’s Just Transition and the joined by video to also discuss Collie's Just Transition and the importance of communication and trust at all levels

- Some community sentiment that there's been a lack of communication from those investing in future energy
- Not many comments regarding the future of Callide Power Station
